

Wound Care in Oncology Study Day

Overview:

This course will provide a multi-disciplinary approach to cancers affecting the skin. It will share typical presentations and discuss their management. There will be opportunities to explore treatment options, share good practice and debate day to day challenges in wound care.

What to expect:

- Skin Malignancies
- Plastic Surgery
- Radiotherapy Skin
- Reactions
- Lymphoedema
- Fungating Wounds
- Head & Neck Cancers
- Vulval cancers
- Case Studies

Intended Audience:

A study day intended for GPs, District Nurses, Practice Nurses, Tissue Viability Nurses, Lymphoedema Practitioners, Oncology Nurses and Radiotherapy staff.

Attendee fee:

Virtual: £80 (Early bird: £65)

On-site: £80 (Early bird: £65)

Student/Charity £50

Funded places available to Christie Staff

*All tickets (on-site and virtual) include access to the event recordings, resources and presentations for up to 6 months post event.

25th
Sept 2024

HYBRID

[Click here to register or scan
QR code](#)

Join in the conversation on Twitter with #SoOWound24

08:45 Registration

Chair: Susy Pramod

Session 1

09.15 Introduction and Welcome

Susy Pramod, Lead Nurse Tissue Viability, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

09.30 Lymphoedema

Jo Clarke, Lymphoedema Specialist, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

10.10 Surgical Reconstruction

Kantappa Gajanan, Specialty Doctor Plastic Surgery, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

10:40 Break

Chair: Susy Pramod

Session 2

11.00 Gynaecological Cancers

Dr Eva Myrokefalitaki, Consultant, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

11.40 Head and Neck Cancers Skin and Wound Management

Trish Murray, Clinical Nurse Specialist, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

12.20 Lunch

Chair: Susy Pramod

Session 3

13.20 Proton Therapy

Mark Reed, Specialist Radiographer, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

14.00 Wound Care in Oncology including Malignant Fungating Wounds

Susy Pramod, Lead Nurse Tissue Viability, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust

14.45 Break

Chair: Susy Pramod

Session 4

15.05 Assessing skin reactions in people of colour

Naman Julka-Anderson, Research Radiographer, The Royal Marsden NHS Trust and Institute of Cancer Research, Allied Health Professional Clinical Advisor at Macmillan Cancer Support and co-founder of Rad Chat Oncology Podcast.

15.45 Close and final questions

Susy Pramod, Lead Nurse Tissue Viability, The Christie NHS Foundation Trust